Prokofiev, Sonata No. 7.

9:35 THE REST OF THE LEFT WING: In eleven years, Pacifica radio has interviewed several people interested in radical politics, but rarely one so frank as Dr. Annette Rubenstein. At one time associated with New York's Labor Party, Dr. Rubenstein was in 1958 a candidate for lieutenant-governor of that state on a United Radical-Socialist ticket. She discusses, among other things, the reasons why the Communist Party opposed the ticket, and the relationship between poets and politics. Gene Marine is the interviewer. (MARCH 30) and Villa-Lobos.

1:10 PEOPLE WHO HATE: Ralph Greenson, Clinical Professor of Psychiatry at UCLA, stereotypes some of the people around us. This may be old hate to some, but Greenson is a rather witty fellow.
Recorded by Gerald Zelinger at the School for Nursery Years Lecture Series.

2:25 YUGOSLAVIA AND THE WORLD: A conversation with His Excellency Mr. Marko Nikezic, Ambassador to the United States from the Federal People's Republic of Yugoslavia, who describes the state of Yugoslavia's relations with the USSR, the East European Communist states, the People's Republic of China, the United Arab Republic, and Israel.
